

Dear Sirs:

Telemarketers are a bane!! Keep the NJ law. People who are elderly are especially bothered by these calls. It is difficult to get up and down to answer the phone and to walk all those extra steps when a person has arthritis or other joint or muscle problems. Getting out of the shower and racing to the phone is no pleasure either.